

A Musician
A Humorist
An Artist
An Actor
A Dental Hygienist
A Newspaper Publisher
A Vice Admiral
A Radio Celeb
and a Rabbi
Walk Into a Bar...

..AND THAT'S MY STORY:

A BENEFIT FOR

ForkKids
Help Us Help Homeless Families and you are invited to what promises to be one of the hippest performance events of the new year!

It's a STORY SLAM!

Featuring Hampton Roads' Most Colorful & Celebrated Personalities

In a storytelling competition
Designed to entertain and engage Mined from personal lifetime events

Saturday, February 11, 2012

7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

At Legendary Chef Monroe Duncan's Night of the Iguana
37th Street and Hampton Boulevard

$30 per person includes great food
Cash Bar

Listen, enjoy, dine and kick off the ensuing on-line voting
RSVP and/or Vote at homesforkids.org

Performers

Hugh Copeland - Director/Founder of Hurrah Players
Tony Johnstone-Burt Vice Admiral NATO - Chief of Staff NATO's Supreme Allied Command Transformation
Maurice Jones - Publisher of the Virginian Pilot
Antoinette Kahan - Dental Hygenist and Community Activist
BJ Leiderman - Musician/Composer of NPR Fame
Hope Mihalap - Nationally Acclaimed Humorist
Rabbi Michael Panitz - Rabbi Temple Israel
Edie White - Storyteller/Writer
Eric Worden - Radio Host of BOB FM

For any questions, please call Aline Landy, 757-622-6400 x 136